Hello!

Purpose transforms work into something we choose to invest in.

Finding Purpose

- Improves our motivation, resilience, performance, and decision-making
- Prevents or aids in recovery from burnout
- Strengthens the people network and ability to earn trust

It's okay to have 'stupid' goals

“A jack of all trades is a master of none, but oftentimes better than a master of one.”

-Geffray Mynshul (1618)

LESSON ONE

BE CURIOUS

Curious people don't plateau.

Curiosity...

- Pushes us to dig deeper
- Demonstrates empathy
- Helps navigate change and uncertainty

Ask the question.

LESSON TWO

AUTHENTIC

Build trust, not ego.

Authenticity...

- Is freeing
- Builds confidence and influence

Authenticity...

- Is freeing
- Builds confidence and influence
- Pushes good boundaries and models permission

Lift others, aid their purpose.

LESSON THREE

BE FLAWED

Be better, not right.

Acknowledging Flaws...

- Shows us our professional roadmap
- Reduces risk of exhaustion
- Eases the lean into innovation and risk-taking

Ask for specific feedback, often.

At the end of the day...

- Women and those with diverse backgrounds are the delta
- Break through the traps in your head
- Do the scary thing

So let's do it!

- Define it
- Reframe it
- Plan it
- Set expectations
- Build a system
